Terra Costa Howard releases first TV ad in her campaign for 48th District State Representative

LOMBARD – Terra Costa Howard, Democratic candidate for 48th District State Representative, today released her first television ad, which introduces her to voters as a mother, small business owner, and fierce advocate for children and families.

The 30-second spot was produced by DML Message, a renowned Washington-based media consulting firm that has done award-winning work for Vice President Al Gore, Senator Bernie Sanders, and many other political campaigns in the United States and around the world.

“Voters in the 48th District want a representative who shares their values and who will put their interests first,” said Elizabeth Austin, campaign communications director. “Terra Costa Howard was born and raised in DuPage County, and she believes that people in the 48th District deserve excellent public schools, fair taxes, and the freedom to make their own health decisions without government interference. This ad lets people know that Terra Costa Howard will be a strong, independent new voice for them in Springfield.”

The ad is running on cable systems serving communities throughout the 48th District, which includes most of Glen Ellyn and Lombard, the eastern part of Wheaton, and sections of Lisle, Downers Grove and Oak Brook Terrace.
